The Power of Language in a Poem Poetry's primary vehicle is language, meticulously crafted to achieve specific effects. Imagery, metaphor, and symbolism are not merely decorative elements but essential tools for conveying meaning and evoking feelings. The simple yet evocative language, "the only other sounds the sweep of easy wind and downy flake," paints a vivid picture of a serene winter landscape. This imagery, combined with the speaker's internal struggle, creates a powerful emotional response in the reader.
