the main purpose of this book is to offer to philosophers and students abroad who show a great interest in japanese philosophy and the philosophy of the kyoto school major texts of the leading philosophers this interest has surely developed out of a desire to obtain from the thought of these philosophers who stood within the interstice between east and west a clue to reassessing the issues of philosophy from the ground up or to drawing new creative possibilities the present condition seems to be however that the material made available to further realize this kind of intellectual dialogue is far too scarce this book is intended to be of some help in this regard the book presents selected texts of representative philosophers of the kyoto school such as nishida kitaro tanabe hajime miki kiyoshi nishitani keiji and others who best illustrate the characteristics of this school and works that together portray its image as a whole those who are interested in japanese philosophy or specifically the philosophy of the kyoto school can survey a comprehensive representation from this book these texts are of course quite difficult and cannot be well understood without sufficient preliminary knowledge expository essays have therefore been included after each text to provide guidance in each of these commentaries a scholar of our time with deep understanding of the philosopher in question has provided an account of his life intellectual journey and the significance of the text included here from this book will emerge a new dialogue of ideas that in turn will engender new developments in philosophy thereby further expanding the network of philosophical thought worldwide

6 lectures at the hague april 7 12 1922 a written report by rudolf steiner on the course cw 82 there is no contradiction if you look into the matter correctly between destiny and freedom however in order to be able to present the concept of destiny to the world later on it was first necessary that the concept of freedom be presented in the book the philosophy of freedom rudolf steiner lect 6 published here for the first time in english these six public lectures are among rudolf steiner s most inspired and inspiring explorations of anthroposophy as a true science of the spirit our age provides abundant explanations of the universe its nature and evolution but underlying most scientific modalities is a passive engagement with self and world a taking for granted of the faculty of thinking and as a result an indifferent arranging of phenomena through logical inference but the question remains what is thinking a product of chemical processes in the brain or a spiritual activity through which we become participants in a spiritual cosmos this is steiner s starting point in all his work he aims to cast off the unnecessary limits imposed on knowledge by a science that fails to examine its most fundamental epistemological premises the lectures here are a remarkable contribution to this lifelong project a compelling eloquent insightful study and affirmation of our very humanness speaking to a youthful academic audience steiner does not confine himself to the arbitrary delineations of codified academic disciplines on the contrary he breaks down barriers builds bridges envisions a future academy in which the paths of knowledge are broadened through a genuine science of initiation to encompass our role as members and ultimately co creators of the physical soul and spiritual universe those who seek to prove something show through the very fact that they seek to prove it that for them what must be proved is not readily perceptible we actually seek to prove something whenever we have no direct perception of it when in older instinctive cognition people had a perception of what they called the divine being they did not need proofs historically the proofs for the existence of god began only when the perception was lost evidence is required wherever there is no perception rudolf steiner lect 6 this volume is a translation from german of damit der mensch ganz mensch werde die bedeutung der anthroposophieim geistesleben der gegenwart ga 82 2nd ed rudolf steiner verlag dornach switzerland 1994 cover image the golden cell by odilon redon 1892 oil and colored chalks with gold 30 1 cm x 24 7 cm the british museum london this book examines in detail the basic trajectory of the cultural transformation and brings to light the extrinsic conditions and intrinsic mechanisms involved it focuses on the period from after the opium wars to the new culture movement as the new culture movement can be considered a pivotal phase in the cultural transformation of modern day china the new culture movement was a revolutionary eruption triggered by the accumulation of all the new qualitative cultural factors since the opium wars superficially the movement s goal seemed to be to overthrow the traditional culture but in essence its true objective was to conduct an overall screening of that culture the book elaborates a broad variety of points in this context including the ideological and cultural evolution following the opium wars the pressing challenges faced by zhong ti the initial shaping of social public and cultural spaces and major trends in ideological and cultural transformation at the end of the qing dynasty the political disarray and conflicts between the new and old ideology in the first years of the
